

Vision Works Publishing

Artist Submission Guidelines
Effective September 2008

Dear Artist:

Thank you for your interest in Vision Works Publishing- A cutting edge publisher of multicultural books for children. Vision Works Publishing has an active publishing program that produces Two to four new titles per year. This may include picture books, and chapter books elementary and middle school age readers.

Vision Works Publishing is currently accepting non-returnable art samples and tear sheets.

What we are looking for:

- ◆ creative, original cutting edge imagery
- ◆ realistic, contemporary characters
- ◆ cultural diversity

Please send samples and contact information to include - your name, address and pertinent phone number(s) via mail only to:

Art Director
Vision Works Publishing
P.O. Box 360063
Brooklyn, New York 11236

NOTE: If you do not hear from us within six weeks, you may assume that your work does not fit our immediate needs. All art samples will be kept on file for consideration of future projects. Vision Works Publishing art department will not review or consider unsolicited art samples sent via e-mail.

Vision Works Publishing is committed to empowering developing minds to soar. Our literary and musical works enable children to successfully engage the diverse world we live in, realize the awesome power we each have in manifesting our destiny, and understand the responsibility we share in sculpting a global community beneficial for all. It has grown into a fruitful resource of positive transformation for children, families and educators. (www.VisionWorksOnline.net)